Western Union rights sold at $12 for the lot, although they had a value of $50 a hundred when first listed on the Exchange, and sold as high as $1 each on the curb.

The frank statement of President Bedford of Corn Products Company to the effect that if the Government succeeded in breaking that concern up into four parts the common stock would not be worth a cent, and the preferred stock would have little value was chief subject of discussion, but perhaps for the reason that there was little of the stocks in the comwas little of the stocks in the commission houses only a small amount of them came out on the decline.

Bears derived encouragement from the fact that stocks at no time during the session got up to Monday's high figures. This was regarded by many as an indication that distribution was going on as opportunity offered. Total sales 320,671 shares.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.

Cotton prices were steady in the carly part. Big stock houses were tuyers of near months, and the general impression is that short interest is not yet covered. South and local crowd sold new crop months on favorable weather conditions. Port receipts estimated 22,000 bales, last week 31,110, year ago 22,609.

"The Corset I've Wanted All My Life"

This expression is heard from many women who see or wear the Bien Jolie Grecian-Treco Corset for the first time.

And the reason isn't hard to find. Hidden in the soft, pliant, knitted material, the scientific designing and boneless construction, is the secret of the wonderful success which have met. Once "get in" a Grecian-Treco Corset and see the revelation it means in Health, Fashion and Comfort, and you, too, will say it's the corset you've wanted all your life.

Paul Poiret, the famous French couturier, has expressed his heartiest approval of the correctness and quality of the Bien Jolie Corsets.

Ask your dealer to show you the models for your parti-cular figure. $5, $7.50, $10 to $40. Front lacing $7.50 up.

The Bien Jolie Brasslere is an unfailing aid in achieving naturalness and beauty in the appearance of your gowns. In endless variety of dainty and exquisite ornamental styles, 50c to $15.
